RE: Private UCC-1 Financing Statement & Lawful Claim - Notice of Constructive Lien

Please find enclosed a lawful and perfected Private Financing Statement and associated documents establishing a constructive lien due to the dishonor and non-performance of a Secured Promissory Note and related private trust conveyance.

This notice is provided as a matter of public record and lawful remedy. The Eternal RobinsonVillage Bloodline Legacy Trust lawfully tendered payment for a conveyance via private instrument on April 1, 2025. - Notice of Dishonor & Demand for Release
- Notice of Default & Certificate of Administrative Judgment
- Affidavit of Fact & Lawful Commercial Claim
- Public Claim Scroll
- Exhibit A - Evidence Addendum

As of today, no rebuttal or remedy has been received. Per UCC §§ 1-308, 9-607, 9-210, and the Law of Contracts, Trusts, and Commercial Presentment, a constructive lien is now perfected and in full effect.

This notice, its attachments, and all evidentiary exhibits are now entered into the public record and may be enforced at any time by the Trustee, private agents, or authorized third parties.

If no resolution or full release of the trust's secured interest is received within 10 calendar days, further enforcement actions may be pursued including commercial lien bonding, private collection, and public claim execution.

All rights reserved, without prejudice. Lawfully submitted in peace and honor.

Respectfully,

Affidavit of Fact & Lawful Commercial Claim

I, KYLLON ROBINSON, a living man and the Trustee of The Eternal RobinsonVillage Bloodline Legacy Trust (TRVBLT-2025-0001), do hereby solemnly swear and affirm the following facts and claim:

1. On April 1, 2025, I lawfully presented a Secured Promissory Note in the amount of $110,000.00, a Security Agreement, and a full private trust conveyance packet for the lawful acquisition of a 2025 GMC HUMMER EV Pickup 2X (VIN: 1GT40BDD1SU115714) at Bob Johnson Buick GMC, 3817 W Ridge Rd, Rochester, NY.

2. On April 11, 2025, I returned with a Notice of Default, Notice of Dishonor and Demand for Release, Notice of Intent to File Commercial Claim, and Trust Ledger Entry. A Verbal Notice of Dishonor was also issued.

3. No rebuttal in law was ever issued. The dealership returned the original documents without legal justification, failed to reject the instrument lawfully under UCC 3-501, and failed to cure the default or engage in any honorable negotiation. This constitutes administrative dishonor and commercial breach.

4. Under trust law, contract law, and commercial law, failure to rebut a lawful offer constitutes tacit agreement and binding acquiescence.

5. As a result of said dishonor and breach, I have sustained direct, measurable damages in both commercial and emotional realms. I now issue this commercial claim as follows:

Commercial Claim for Compensation:

- Emotional distress and administrative disruption: $25,000.00
- Administrative time and lawful labor (144 hours at $125/hr): $18,000.00
- Material and trust operating costs (printing, postage, notary, supplies): $1,500.00
- Breach of Trust, dishonor of lawful tender, and commercial trespass: $50,000.00
- Vehicle Value already lawfully tendered: $110,000.00

TOTAL LAWFUL CLAIM: $205,000.00 (Two Hundred Five Thousand U.S. Dollars)

6. This affidavit shall serve as the lawful foundation for public lien filing, UCC enforcement, and/or further remedy as necessary.

Executed this 17th day of April, 2025.
